

Trout Friendly Lawns - Landscaper & Business Certification Agenda

9:00 am – 12:00 pm | April 19, 2022 | Online Event

Time	Presenter	Description
9:00 – 9:10	Amy King Legacy Works Group	Opening Remarks: Remind participants to keep mics on mute, how to submit questions, overview of agenda, introduce LegacyWorks Group. Briefly introduce speakers and organizations.
9:10 – 9:20	Leslie Steen Trout Unlimited	Introduction & History of the Jackson Hole Clean Water Coalition: Leslie will provide context on how and why the coalition formed, and how it grew to include 10 government agency and nonprofit partners.
9:20 – 9:35	David Lee Teton Conservation District	Water Quality Issues in Teton County: An overview of long-term water quality monitoring efforts and water quality challenges, with a focus on nutrients from landscaping and nonpoint source pollution.
9:35 - 9:50	Will Stubblefield Friends of the Teton River and Leslie Steen Trout Unlimited	Overview Collaborative Water Efforts: Partnerships in stream restoration projects, aquifer recharge, sediment monitoring and erosion reduction.
9:50 – 10:30	Kelly Kopp, Ph.D. Utah State University	Soils: Soil fertility and nutrient cycling in irrigated turf.
10:30-10:35	BREAK
10:35 - 10:50	JP Huser Mountain Town Maintenance	Ponds: Pond maintenance best management practices.
10:50 – 11:30	Lesley Beckworth Teton County Weed & Pest District Derek Ellis Jackson Hole Land Trust	Overview of Trout Friendly Lawn Guidelines: Derek and Lesley will provide details and best management practices for the four elements of the Trout Friendly Program: Fertilizer Application, Water Use, Native Plants & Streamside Buffers, and Pesticide & Herbicide Application.
11:30 – 11:40	Dan Tolson Valley Landscape Service	Strategies for Connecting with Clients: Selling best practices that make sense.
11:40 - 11:50	Morgan Graham Teton Conservation District	Native Plants: Morgan will provide participants with some sources for native seed and container plants and considerations of native plants in various habitat types across the Jackson Hole Valley. Special opportunity to order plants through Piney Island w/ free shipping.
11:50 – 12:00	Phoebe Coburn Teton Conservation District	Certifying Properties & the Trout Friendly Landscaper & Business Partner Agreement: How to certify a property and the requirements and benefits of becoming a certified Trout Friendly Landscaper or Business.