

Trout Friendly Lawns - Landscaper & Business Certification Agenda

April 13, 2023 | 10:00 am – 12:00 pm (optional light lunch 12:00 pm. - 1:00 p.m.)

Teton County Library in Jackson, WY

Time	Presenter	Description
10:00 – 10:10	Amy King Legacy Works Group	Opening Remarks: Overview of agenda and speaker introduction, background on the Jackson Hole Clean Water Coalition.
10:10 - 10:20	David Lee Teton Conservation District	Water Quality Issues in Teton County: An overview of long-term water quality monitoring efforts and water quality challenges, with a focus on nutrients from landscaping and nonpoint source pollution.
10:20 - 10:30	Lesley Beckworth Teton County Weed &amp; Pest District Derek Ellis Jackson Hole Land Trust	Overview of Trout Friendly Lawn Guidelines: A summary of the four Trout Friendly guidelines (Limit Fertilization, Be Water Wise, Plant Natives & Maintain Streamside Buffers, and Use Herbicides and Pesticides Appropriately) and a brief overview of the benefits of certifying your business as Trout Friendly.
10:30 – 11:10	Michael Goatley, Ph.D. Virginia Tech School of Plant and Environmental Sciences	Biostimulating Turfgrasses: An overview of biostimulants: what are biostimulants, and how can they be incorporated into active turf management to improve plant AND soil health.
11:10 - 11:25	Doug Washburn Agronotec Seed Co.	Overseeding and the Health of Your Lawn: How overseeding helps your lawn and reduces the need for fertilizer.
11:25 – 11:45	Dan Tolson Valley Landscape Service	Healthy Turf with Less Water: Strategies for becoming better stewards of irrigation water.
11:45 - 12:00	Morgan Graham Teton Conservation District	Native Plants and the Conservation Planting Program: Native plant opportunity update. How to capitalize on growing demand.