

Trout Friendly Lawns - Landscaper & Business Certification Agenda

April 11, 2024 | 10:00 am – 1:00 pm (optional light lunch 12:00 pm. - 1:00 p.m.)

Teton County Library in Jackson, WY

Time	Presenter	Description
10:00 – 10:10	Liz Collins Teton Conservation District	Opening Remarks: Overview of agenda and speaker introduction, housekeeping, background and update on the Jackson Hole Clean Water Coalition.
10:10 - 10:30	David Lee Teton Conservation District Lesley Beckworth Teton County Weed & Pest District	Overview of Trout Friendly Lawn Practices: A summary of the four Trout Friendly practices (Limit Fertilization, Be Water Wise, Plant Natives & Maintain Streamside Buffers, and Use Herbicides & Pesticides Appropriately) and their correlation with scientifically recognized water quality impacts and challenges specific to Teton County.
10:30 – 11:20	Dr. Anthony Koski Colorado State University	Keynote: Environmentally responsible lawn management, alternative grasses, organic/natural lawn care practices, sensible irrigation, and responsible use of pesticides. With time for Q&A.
11:20 – 11:30	Dan Huser Mountain Town Maintenance	Pond Maintenance: Best practices for nuisance species management, pond water quality enhancement, algaecide usage, and related topics.
11:30 - 11:40	Cody Pitz Wyoming Wetland Society	Beavers: The role of beavers in landscapes, the benefits of coexistence vs trapping, and best practices for successful coexistence with beavers on private land.
11:40 - 11:55	Morgan Graham Teton Conservation District	Native Plants and the Conservation Planting Program: Overview of opportunities that support planting native vegetation, updates on where to source seeds, and local success stories.